NEW YORK PREMIERE: ALL GOD'S CHILDREN, DOCUMENTARY ABOUT CHILDREN SURVIVING ABUSE AT THE HANDS OF AMERICAN MISSIONARIES IN AFRICA

Film's Participant and Directors to Attend Screening in Campbell, NY

(New York, May 2009) All God's Children will have its New York premiere on Sunday, June 14th - 2:30pm, at the Curtis Baptist Church on Tannery Road in Campbell, NY 14821. The film's directors, Scott Solary and Luci Westphal (Brooklyn, NY), as well as one of the film's participants Dianne Darr Coutts (Akron, OH) are scheduled to attend. The event is hosted by Sharon Kroeker Hauber, who attended the Mamou Alliance Academy – the boarding school at the center of the documentary. The Christian and Missionary Alliance, which ran the boarding school, had its headquarters in Nyack, NY at the time of the abuses.

Through the eyes of three families, the documentary All God's Children (70 minutes) tells the personal story of the first boarding school for children of missionaries to be investigated for abuse at the hands of the parents' missionary colleagues. The survivors and parents share their journey of seeking justice, redemption and healing.

While the American parents were stationed in remote outposts throughout West Africa, their children - starting at the age of 6 - were required to attend the Christian and Missionary Alliance (C&MA) boarding school in Mamou, Guinea. Cut off from their parents and without any reliable means of communication, the children quietly suffered from the abuse by the all-missionary staff. It took the children decades to acknowledge the effects on their lives. When they finally dared to speak out, the C&MA denied all allegations and refused to help. Through years of persistent activism the survivors and their parents finally compelled the C&MA to conduct an investigation and acknowledge the abuses. The healing could begin.

"Exposing a horrific scandal that's virtually never been highlighted anywhere, this deeply moving film is about far more than childhood betrayal. It's also about the heroic work of wounded adults to hold callous and deceitful church officials accountable for stunning crimes. It's both jaw-dropping and awe-inspiring."

David Clohessy, national director of SNAP, the Survivors Network of those Abused by Priests
